Listing Summary

100.85+/- Acres Buffalo County, WI

Located in the famed Buffalo County, Wisconsin sits this secluded 100.85 acres. This farm has an excellent deer history and is turn key for any new buyer looking for an A class hunting farm. The farm has several stands and elevated blinds already strategically placed along the long ridgeline that runs down the heart of the property and all of the great wood edge that this property offers. The farm has several great future food plot locations as well. This farm hunts big, and also has multiple south and north facing slopes for year round bedding. The hills on this farm have a gentle roll to them which helps make them very huntable. The property also has a trailer on it with well, septic and electric and the trailer has been remodeled on the inside. The trailer will also come furnished so it is ready for you to share hunting camp with friends and family for years to come! There is also a beautiful trout stream that runs through the property offering great fishing opportunities right out your back door! This farm also offers several great building sites for your dream home. The tillable ground has an annual income of $2000.
